

QMS WEEKEND & HOLIDAY ACTIVITIES

A Sample of Boarding Life Activities

QUEEN MARGARET'S SCHOOL

QMS Boarding Life

The joyful moments of being a boarding student often come after school hours.

It is the yoga classes, the cookie dough made with friends, the excitement of the first hockey game, a personal test of bravery in an outdoor adventure and the bedtime giggles that create the bonds of friendship and memories that last a lifetime.

In a small school, every student is pulled into week night and weekend activities such as watching movies, shopping trips or a simple walk around campus by their friends.

Weekend residence life also includes some unstructured time when students can relax and re-charge after their busy week.

Residence staff members are on-duty 24 hours a day, every day of the week, to ensure appropriate care, attention and supervision is given to all boarding students.
