HOME FOR THE WEEKEND

A Five Day Boarding Program

QUEEN MARGARET'S SCHOOL

Why be a Five-Day Boarder?

The joyful moments of being a boarding student often come after school hours.

- Friends and independence within an active boarding community
- Live on campus from Sunday night through to after-school on Friday
- Structured evening study time and ample social time with friends
- Structured evening study time and ample social time with friends
- Weekend transportation to Nanaimo and Horseshoe Bay and Duke Point ferry terminals

HOME FOR THE WEEKEND BOARDERS HAVE IT ALL

Queen Margaret's "Home for the Weekend" Boarders have independence within a small and safe living environment, structured academic support, friends from around the world, and the ability to be close to their family and friends when they return on the weekends.

Our five-day boarders travel home to the Lower Mainland, Fraser Valley, Sunshine Coast and Northern Vancouver Island using school-provided bussing to Nanaimo or one of the Nanaimo ferry terminals serving Vancouver & Tsawwassen.

There are a small number of "Red Weekend" events when all boarders are required to remain in Residence to enjoy the festivities.

Our "Home for the Weekend" boarders are also welcome to stay in Residence for additional weekends to participate in field trips, dances and other activities at an extra per diem charge that includes meals.

Tuition & Boarding fees include residence and meals from Sunday 5:00pm through Friday 3:00pm and weekend transportation to established drop-off points in Nanaimo, and Horseshoe Bay and Duke Point ferry terminals.

See full fee schedule for more details about boarding activity fees, pocket money and additional boarding expenses.
